

LEGAL HISTORY MEETS DIGITAL HUMANITIES

PERMANENT SEMINAR ON METHODS,
RESOURCES AND THEORIES

2023 SESSIONS

CONTACT: DHSEMINAR@LHLT.MPG.DE

REGISTRATION
AND CURRENT INFO
HYBRID SESSIONS ONLINE
AND AT THE INSTITUTE

For several years at the Department Historical Regimes of Normativities various research groups and personal research projects at Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory have been actively integrating into their theoretical research perspectives and activities, the methods offered by the Digital Humanities in multiple degrees. The permanent seminar Legal History Meets Digital Humanities intends to provide a space for discussion and in-depth analysis of the numerous themes, techniques, and challenges the Digital Humanities offers to historical research, particularly to the history of law.

WITH SESSIONS BY:

Andreas Wagner
TECHNOLOGY AND LEGAL HISTORY RESEARCH
Feb 28, 2023

Nuno Camarinhas
BEYOND PROSOPOGRAPHY: USING DIGITAL
HUMANITIES TO STUDY THE EARLY-MODERN PORTUGUESE COLONIAL JUDICIARY
Feb 28, 2023

Karin Hofmeister
DEVELOPMENT OF AN INTEROPERABLE
TAXONOMY: THE GLOBAL COLLABORATORY ON
THE HISTORY OF LABOUR RELATIONS 1500–2000
June 20, 2023

Georg Vogeler
ASSERTIVE EDITION
Jul 25, 2023

Andrés Burbano,
Sebastián Vargas, Luis Tumiñá Ussa
DIGITAL NARRATIVES & PLURIVOCITY IN DH
Oct 12, 2023

Francesco Beretta
DATA FOR HISTORY
Dec 12, 2023